Alzheimer Awareness month public lecture Aducanumab and Research Update

with Dr. Sharon Cohen, MD FRCP

Join us to hear Dr. Sharon Cohen, Medical Director and Principal Investigator at Toronto Memory Program as she discusses the exciting news of the FDA’s approval of the use of aducanumab. It is the first new treatment for Alzheimer’s disease in 20 years and the very first disease-modifying drug proven to slow AD progression.

Date: Wed. January 26th

Time: 7:00pm – 8:15pm
