Adjusting to Long Term Care:

the unique needs of the first three months after moving

Moving for anyone is a stressful life event. Moving into long term care for someone who has dementia presents with its own unique stressors.

Join Kathie Poitras, Psychogeriatric Resource Consultant, in this interactive webinar as she shares tips and ideas on how to plan the transition to a new living environment to be as dementia friendly as possible, whether it is a long term care home or a memory care floor.
